Detailed Action

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In claim 1, the applicant claims "indicating refusal of the incoming call to the incoming call caller without answering the incoming call when the deny flag is set" (lines 7-8). In claim 3, the applicant claims "indicating refusal of the new incoming call to the incoming call caller before the incoming call is answered" (lines 7-8). In claim 7, the applicant claims "to refuse the incoming call if the deny flag is set prior to and without ever answering the incoming call" (lines 10-11). With regard to claims 1, 3 and 7, the applicant points to page 4, lines 11-13 of the specification in which a ring flag is set when an incoming call is received, but before the incoming call is answered. The refusal of a call is achieved, however, by the deny flag (specification page 4, lines 26-31), not the ring flag.

With regard to claim 14, the applicant claims that a "processor does not temporarily refuse incoming calls and does not place temporarily refused calls in a queue" (lines 1-3). The applicant's original disclosure does not disclose temporarily refused incoming calls.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
